CONSIDERING WHERE

F. S. Williams & Co.

Protect Yourself

Changes.

Williams'

Prussian

Cough Syrup

safest remedy for coughs and chest colds on the market.

Price, 15c a bottle

FOR SALE ONLY AT

9th and F

A BASKET

Champagne

$5.00

Just 10 Left-A Bargain.

tled in bond; full quart ... $1.00

Domestic

Williams' TEMPLE DRUG STORE

Against Climatic

POSSIBLE SITES FOR PROPOSED

An Edifice for Inaugural Balls and Conventions.

Localities Discussed Prominent Financier-Interesting Realty Deals.

to hold the inaugural ball four years the archbishop and General Gillespie hence, the developments growing out of this notification are of interest. It is understood that assurances have been the famous Library on Capitol Hill. tendered the committees of Congress that the people of the District will, by the time the next inauguration of a President comes along, have provided a building in every way suitable not only for this social function, but of dimensions ample for the holding of large Not the least important feature of the promised structure is to be one or more halls in which concert can be given by our own symphony orchestra, and other like organizations from other cities.

Several of the leading financiers of Washington having already pledged their active support to the undertaking, and no doubt being entertained that ly detailed by Bernard Green admitted if a stock company is formed looking to ily taken by the people of the District, the question is already discussed where so arranged as to attract not only very large gatherings, but also smaller assemblies in order that as much of its space as possible shall be in use all the time; it must satisfy in its external and internal construction and ornamentawith the other great buildings of the city.

"The first two of these conditions those of cost and location, are almost interdependent. We must have a central location, and yet we shall not be able to pay an exorbitant price for the land, because we shall have to keep as much of our money as possible, for the building itself. I admit the difficulty of the proposition, but it will have to be "One of the ideal spots, in my opinion for this great hall would be the neighborhood of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. In the first place, it is them. Then again, there is the large plaza giving ample room for carriages and obviating the usual congestion occasioned by crowds gathered within narrow confines. The new Masonic Temple to be erected on the east side of this plaza would form a decimal. of this plaza would form a desirable ness of this plaza would form a desnable companion piece to the greater structure. The squares abutting on this site on the east side of New Hampshire site of New Hamp building Itself.

Other Locations.

"Another locality most suitable would be the neighborhood of the Corcoran Art Gallery. In that part of the city tees, to Louise D. Lovett, lots 23 and 24, land could probably be had at a more reasonable price and the location would be nearly, if not quite, as convenient as that portion of New York Avenue of which I spoke a while ago. If the buildthat portion of New York Avenue of which I spoke a while ago. If the building were erected thereabouts it would have stately neighbors, too, such as the Corcoran Gallery, the George Washington University, the Octagon House, which is to be renovated, and a little farther to the east the State. War and Navy building, to say nothing of the White House. Like the other locality mentioned by me, it would be in easy distance of all the points of interest and reight be reade ready of access to all the street car lines.

"Perhaps it may be found advisable to seek a location in the eastern section of the city, some suitable spot not too far removed from the Capitol. But v herever the structure is finally placed, the fundamental conditions suggested by me will, I think, have to be observed.

by me will, I think, have to be observed."

New Houses in Bloomingdale.

That rapidly growing section lying just east of North Capitol Street and about Florida Avenue has received a new impetus by the erection of a number of pretty two-story houses, which are in the hands of the B. F. Saul Com-Bloomingdale has steadily be come a favorite in the selection of homes by those who wish to combine cheap ness with solidity of building. comfort in arrangement of interiors, and the houses now put on the market by the Saul Company promise to become not inconsiderable factor in the fur ther settlement of this section of the Sales of Property.

A lot on the north side of S Street, between Twenty-second and Twentythird Streets northwest, is about to be sold through Swartzell, Rheem & Hensey Co., in conjunction with West 300 feet and a corresponding large depth. The purchaser intends, so it is said, to erect a large residence and lay out the ground not used for this purpose into a lawn and garden. Swartzell, Rheem & Hensey also sold

Letter From Indians To Dean of Canterbury

PUBLIC BUILDING General Gillespie's Unique Christmas Present
Sent to Present Archbishes Bhate Sent to Present Archbishop-Photograph of Epistle Written by Sachems in 1710.

> Christmas present, a photograph of a letter addressed to a former Archbishop of Canterbury by four Indian chiefs in carefully kept in watertight, airtight, almost clandestine visit to the Library of Congress under the escort of General Gillespie and Bernard Green, superin tendent of the Library. After he had seen it he said it was undoubtedly the most scientifically kept library in the In view of the fact that Congress has world. Leaving the reception at the served notice upon the people of the Corcoran Art Gallery at 5 o'clock, when District that they need not hope for the the fashionably late crowd was still of any Government building in which swarming up the steps to meet his grace, Anxious to See Library.

It was feared at first that the arch bishop would not be able to visit the Library owing to the large number of engagements made for him during his brief stay here. As a governor of the Royal Library, and with a view to learn latest wrinkles in the care and handling of books from American Green. But when he had peered into side of the Atlantic Ocean. When the party arrived at the Con gressional Library, they found the build-ing deserted. Two attendants especialthem, and under the guidance of the superintendent the archbishop was hur-300,000 to $400.000 the stock will be read- ried from one part of the Library to the other. Strangely enough he was little impressed by the decorations of the Major General Gillespie has sent to the each volume to the cards he had never Archbishop of Canterbury a unique before seen.

In the manuscripts division, where all the old and valuable manuscripts are germtight glass cases, the archbishop FOR MUSIC HALL ALSO The original manuscript is now care- lingered longer than in any other. He fully preserved in the Library of Con- admired the system which not only pregress and greatly interested the present serves the manuscripts practically for-archbishop during his recent visit to ever, if they are not disturbed, but also Washington. makes it possible for them to be ex-The archbishop made a hurried and hibited and consulted whenever neces-

Gillespie Finds Letter.

While his grace was carefully exam ining the cases, General Gillespie walk-ed down one of the isles toward a west The last rays of the setting sun cast a golden glow on one of the cases. It caught the general's eye. He saw what he imagined to be an old In-

"Your grace," said General Gillespie, touching him on the arm, "there is something in a case in the next aisle which will be of interest to you."

sealing the manuscripts that he wa with difficulty persuaded to leave Mr. cousins the archbishop was most the case General Gillespie pointed out anxious to see the greatest library this to him he suddenly dropped on his right apostolic knee and pressed his face close to the glass.

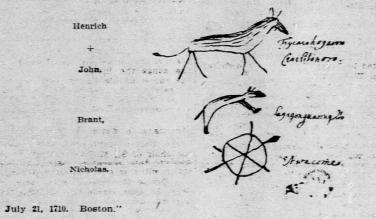

Archbishop's Surprise.

"What's this, what's this," he said. 'How did it get here?' It was the letter which General Gilles pie has since had photographed and sent to the archbishop. It read:

other. Strangely enough he was little the question is already discussed where will be the best locality for the proposed edifice. A well-known capitalist, who, in all probability, will take a prominent part in the enterprise, in an informal manner, talked the matter over with some friends a day or two ago.

Fundamental Conditions.

"We have to keep in mind that this great building will have to serve not only a social but also a utilitarian purpose," he said. The cost cannot be permitted to exceed $350,000, or $400,000; it must be centrally located; it must be so arranged as to attract not only very large gatherings, but also awalls.

convenient to all the street car lines without being too greatly disturbed by proposed building ample breadth and Streets, and proposes to erect thereon a depth. The cost? There, of course, is the trouble. I suppose the land necessary for such a structure, if selected in this vicinity, would cost so much that this vicinity, would cost so much that foot. The deal was made through more known money would be left for the Westcott & Story, who sold the property for Sarah B. Conkling.

Real Estate Transfers.

1246 and 1248 Eleventh Street northwest-S. Herbert Giesy et al, trussquare 314, $10,802.61.

Benning Road-William H. Bell et al. to Eastern Star Benevolent Society of America, lot en Benning Road, $1.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Scarlet fever is unknown in countries where cown milk is not used as food, hence milk from unsanitary stables may contain the poison producing it
Milk is also known to have caused epidemics of epidemics of DIPHTHERIA, TYPHOID, and other
ENTERIC DISEASES.
A proper and simple precaution consists in

SCALDING MILK

(Don't boll it) for children and invalids—and scalding will not affect its digestibility. After scalding, keep cool and covered.

A regular diet for children on candensed milk is inadvisable. SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION

OF SICKNESS. We favor a stringent law prohibit-ing the sale, or use in ice cream, of any CREAM not Pasteurized.

TO BREAK PARADE May March Before Stands on the Ellipse.

OBJECTION TO THIS PLAN

Committee on Public Comfort Finds Difficulty in Finding Quarters for Organizations.

What will become of the inaugural arade when it reaches the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Fifteenth Street, in its march westward?

This is the question which at presen is bothering members of the inaugural tion-involved in the inaugural plans. It was raised by the recommendation of the committee on parks and reviewing stands, of which John B. Larner is chairman, that the parade swing in back of the White House and go around the ellipse, out which enormous stands will be erected, if the views of Mr. Larne are carried out.

Nearly all the military men connect ed with the inaugural committee are opposed to this plan because of the difficulty of moving troops in good order around such a gradual turn. One prom-So eager was the archbishop to learn inent military man has, however, ex-all about the method of hermetically pressed the opinion that troops that cannot make that turn ought not to be in the army.

Another objection which has been nade to this plan is that everybody who comes to Washington will want a place in the stands around the ellipse and that this will result in a dangerous ongestion of the crowds at one point. Pennsylvania Avenue object for reasons of their own. It is probable the matter this offer. will be allowed to rest until a later day, when the plan has been more fully onsidered from every viewpoint.

The public comfort committee which M. I. Weller is chairman, is having trouble over the matter of accom-modations for the large organizations, military and civic, which have an-rounced their intention of participating in the parade. Many of the public buildings which were used for quartering roops at previous inaugurations may not be available this year, and what to

CARROLL AGAIN DOWNS

BALTIMORE. Jan. 14.-The return basketball game arranged between the second basketball teams representing Carroll Institute, of Washington, and the West Branch of the Baltimore 7. M. C. A. was pulled off here tonight in the gymnasium of the latter, and was won by Carroll Institute by 8 to 7.

The game was one of the most in-teresting and most fiercely contested ver played in this gymnasium, and up to the time of the final whistle the result was in doubt. The Baltimoreans, de-

Moore et ux. to Frank L. Slaymaker, lot is, block 4, $10.

Thomas B. Hutchinson the premises 214

F Street northwest, the price paid, $15,000, representing chiefly the value of the land, as the improvements are not included in the land, as the improvements are not of great consequence. The lot has an area of 3,352 square feet, making the price per square foot $12.42. The new owner of the property, it is understood, will erect a handsome building for business uses.

Mrs. John Davis has bought a building site on the east side of New Hampshire Avenue, between Q and Corcoran Avenue, between Q and Corcoran Street and proposes to erect thereon a street of the street southeast, between Mrs. Street southeast, between Carroll, fust before the second half that he local begs were held down to the score they made it the first session, while Carroll, fust before the second half that he honors which Carroll had wrested from them in Washington lest week, took a commanding lead in the first half, and got four points to the good.

Carroll came back so strong and certaining of the second half that he honors which Carroll had wrested from them in Washington lest week, took a commanding lead in the first half, and got four points to the good.

Carroll came back so strong and certaining of the second half that he honors which carroll had wrested from them in Washington lest week, took a commanding lead in the first half, and got four points to the good.

Carroll lad wrested from them in Washington lest week, took a commanding lead in the first half, and got four points to the good.

Carroll just before the second half that he honors which carrolles M.

Street northwest, between C and D Streets and II. Slaymaker, lot T.

Square 97, $10.

Fourtheast Street northwest, between C and D Streets and II. Street southeast week took a commanding lead in the first half, and got four points to the good.

Carroll just before the second half should have ended, managed to the fact that neither team was in the lead, it was necessary to prolong the t - i,	Shields, original lot 30, square 801, $1.12. Fifteenth Street northwest, between L and M Streets—Robert E. White to John R. Shields, part lot 10, square 214, $10.  Montello—Junius B. Slack to Richard M. Little, ot 212, block 3, $10. E Street northeast, between Twelfth and Thirteenth Streets—Mary C. Donaldson et al. to Anna B. Woods, lot 4, square 1007, $10.  Addition to Brookland—Judson B. Hurd et al. to Mary A. Hurd, lots 10 and 11, block 49, $1.  $1.25 Baltimore and Return, B. & O. R.R.	the game until one should go to the front. Neither could get the advantage, until Captain Croghan landed the ball in the basket on the foul made by Stevens. Colliflower's goal was the feature.  The line-up: Carroll. Positions. Y. M. C. A. J. Colliflower R. F. Fowler J. Croghan L. F. Taylor F. Howell C. O'Connor G. Colliflower R. B. Stevens Wilkerson L. B. Thomas Goais—J. and G. Colliflower, Croghan, for Carroll: Fowler and Stevens, for Y. M. C. A. Stree throws—Stevens, 3. Referee—Mr. Reilly, Y. M. C. A. Umpire—Mr. Cramer, Carroll. Timers—Messrs. Sullivan, Carroll: Stevens, X. M. C. A.

--	--------	---	---	--

Wife of Millionaire Tells Her Life Story

Three Days After We Met, He Asked Me to Marry Him," Says Mrs. Brodie L. Duke.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.-Mrs. Brodie L. | Duke's private secretary, made an at Duke, formerly Alice Webb, the wife tempt today to see District Attorney of the millionaire tobacco man who has been brought to a sanitarium at Amity-ville, L. I., because of his marriage, this afternoon opened her lips in her own de-

At the office of her attorneys, Levy & Unger, she gave out a statement which, she says, covers all the vital points in her life and sets forth how she came to marry the son of the tobacco magnate. Mrs. Duke says she was in the promot ing business in Chicago with Charles N Taylor, and later became interested in the tobacco industry. Her success in developing the Texas tobacco fields, she says, made her a dangerous rival of those all .. d with the trust.

Dukes Against Her.

This, she claims, turned the Dukes against her, and prompted them to separate her from her husband. She became acquainted with Brodie S

Duke through friends, who had told her he was outside the trust. She telegraphed him from this city to Durham, requesting an interview relative to her desire to develop her properties.

"He came as soon as possible," says Mrs. Duke. "After we had gone well over the ground he agreed to finance the "Three days after we met he asked me marry him. I refused.

"He never quit bothering me, howuntil December 19, when I married him.

Mrs. Duke goes on to say that Duke had assured her she would never be bothered by his children. She says she even offered to sign an agreement re linquishing all claim upon his properties with the exception of whatever interest Those who have windows for rent on may accrue from her own enterprise Duke, she says, would have none of

> In 1895, she says, she ran away from Chicago with a man named Hopkinson Later she regretted the step and ob tained a divorce.

Two years later she married a Mr. Powell. From him also she secured Regarding her connection with Murat Masterson, in 1890, she says: Masterson Shot Her.

Louis Huller, a railroad builder, whe, before going abroad, left some valuable property in my care. Masterson was then in Mexico, but returned in great

He came to my house in the middle of the night, trying to kill me. He wanted to get Huller's securities. TEAM OF BALTIMOREANS "I did not shoot him, but on the conger as a result of his attack.
"My husband knows all these things and repeatedly told me he believed In proof of this latter assertion Mrs Duke showed a copy of a letter written by Duke to his father, dated January 3, 1905, in the course of which he says: Praised by Husband.

"The little woman of my choice has proven herself all that I could anticipate or expect. In fact the more I see and know of her, the more delighted I am at what I have done.' Champe Andrews, counsel for Mr.

him some information about town.

clared he would not see his wife unti-convinced that the charges brought against her by his relatives are b

MEN'S MEETING TODAY

tary of the Young Men's Christian Association of China, Korea, Hongkong, sociation of China, Korea, Hongkong, and the Philippines, will be the speaker. Mr. Brockman is considered one of the leading Christian young men of this generation. John R. Mott says of him:

"By general consent he would be classed among the six most influential Christian leaders among such workers in the Far East."
The musical features will include a section of the United States Marine Band, fifteen picked men. The Dailey Quartet, of Bufalo, and the Metropolitan A. M. E. chorus of forty voices.
Admission will be by ticket only, as usual. Tickets may be obtained at hotels and drug stores generally throughout the city.

LIKE AND UNLIKE.

Mrs. Pettit—There are not many husbands like mine. Whenever I express a desire for anything he never objects.
Mrs. Nagget—My case, too. I can express the desire as often as I please, it never disturbs him at all.—Philadelphia Press.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK ONLY!

Reduced prices on prunes, raisins, dates, malta vita milk breakfast food.

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

Chest Protectors

Hair Soles you'll ward off many ills. Hair

AT LAFAYETTE THEATER

Opera House this afternoon, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, will have an array of attractive features. Fletcher S. Brockman, national secre

Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co.

$1.00

The Shoomaker Co.

obeareto CANDY CATHARTIC GET WHAT YOU ASK FOR-

CASCARETS Candy Cathartic are always put up in blue metal box, our trade-marked, long-tailed C on the cover-tablet octagonal, stamped CCC. Never sold in bulk. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c, Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Valuable Premiums Free With Times Want Ads

THE GENUINE

Save the Coupons

The Times Want Ad Department will issue free Premium Coupons with each cash Want Ad amounting to 15 cents or more. One Coupon will be issued for each day the advertisement is inserted.

For example: An advertiser placing a Want Ad amounting to 15 cents or more for one day will receive but one coupon; for seven days, seven coupons; for thirty days, thirty coupons, etc.

LIST OF PREMIUMS

Premium List Mailed Free on Request or Delivered at The Times Want Counter.

Friends May Assist

After you have selected the premiums you desire go to your many friends and ask them to let you place their Want Ads in The Times, in this way assisting you to secure one or more of these valuable gifts. You will be surprised to find how easy it is to collect coupons.

Watch The Times for additional premium lists, which will be published from time to time at frequent intervals.

All Advertisements Must Be Delivered and Coupons Redemed at The

Times Want Ad Department

Tenth and D Streets N. W.